Part 1 (Central City). Oliver Queen comes to Central City tracking a lead, and he and the Flash clash over methods: Oliver uses lethal force, Barry doesn't. Rainbow Raider (Roy G. Bivolo) hits Barry with a beam of red light that fills him with rage, and Barry turns on Green Arrow in a brutal street fight. Ollie breaks the spell with a trick arrow, and the two heroes earn each other's respect.

Part 2 (Star City). Barry returns the favor in Star City, where Captain Boomerang (Digger Harkness) is bombing the city with explosive boomerangs. Green Arrow, Black Canary, the Flash, and a newly sober Speedy work together. Iris West and Dinah Lance meet, and Barry and Ollie part as friends.

The story

Part 1 (Central City). They're joined by Kendra Saunders, a young woman who carries the soul of the Egyptian princess Chay-Ara and is the new Hawkgirl.

Part 2 (Star City). Mordru's forces follow them to Star City, where Wildcat (Ted Grant) and Black Canary join the fight. Carter Hall (Hawkman) is reborn and reunited with Kendra. Tie-in	The Flash — S2, Ep. 18	Barry's breach moment	Tue., Mar. 29, 2016 — 8:00 PM

The story

Testing his speed, Barry vibrates through the barrier between universes and lands in Boston on Diana's Earth, where Wonder Woman is the first and only superhero and nobody has heard of the Flash. The two team up against Ares's sons Phobos and Deimos. Steve Trevor and Etta Candy don't trust the stranger in red, and Barry and Diana form a bond. Barry vibrates home, and Diana now knows other Earths exist.

Not officially part of the crossover: in The Flash S2, Ep. 18, Barry enters the breach at one moment and comes back out at the next. To his team only seconds pass, but for Barry it has been days, and the WW episode shows what he did there.

Key characters

- Villains: Phobos and Deimos

Consequences

- The DCTVU's first contact between Earths.

Parts 1–3. The Dominators lead an Alien Alliance of Khunds, Thanagarians, Durlans, Gil'Dishpan, Citadelians, Psions, and Daxamites in an attack on Earth. The Dominators want the human metagene. Diana fights on the main DCTVU Earth for the first time, alongside the Flash, Kid Flash, Green Arrow, Black Canary, Arsenal, Speedy, and the JSA. The Thanagarians force Hawkman and Hawkgirl to face their alien past. In Part 3, the Dominators set off the Gene Bomb, and metahumans across the world collapse. The Golden Age veterans, Diana, and Green Arrow's unpowered team hold the line until the alliance falls apart and the invasion is broken.

- Villains: the Dominators and the Alien Alliance

Consequences

- Diana is now firmly part of the DCTVU.

Crossover 5 — THE PIED PIPER OF PERIL

The story

Lead-in. Diana steps through the breach to visit Barry, and Pied Piper is waiting. His flute puts her in a trance.

The musical. Hartley Rathaway traps Barry and Diana in a shared, hypnotic musical dreamscape that he composed himself: a world of nightclubs and Broadway stages where every feeling is sung. To escape, they have to play out the roles he's written for them. Iris West, Wally, and Jay Garrick fight Hartley in the real world while Barry and Diana find the way out through song. Defeated, Hartley realizes his music could do more than hurt people, the first step toward his comic-accurate reform.

Key characters

The story

Part 1. Captain Marvel (Billy Batson) crashes through the breach onto Diana's Earth, fleeing King Kull, the last of the prehistoric Beast-Men, who means to wipe humanity off three Earths. Diana brings Billy to the main DCTVU Earth just as Barry and Iris's wedding begins, and Kull's alliance attacks. On Earth-S, Kull is joined by Dr. Sivana, Ibac, and Mr. Atom; from the other two Earths, by Merlyn, the Cheetah, Icicle, and Captain Cold.

Parts 2–4. The heroes are taken to Earth-S, where they fight alongside the Marvel Family (Mary Marvel and Captain Marvel Jr.) and Earth-S's World War II heroes, the Squadron of Justice. Black Hand calls on Nekron, lord of the dead, and black power rings raise the dead as Black Lanterns. Among them are the Reverse-Flash, whom Barry killed earlier this season; Oliver's parents, Robert and Laura Queen; and Myndi Mayer. Hal Jordan, the Green Lantern of Sector 2814, arrives in live action for the first time to warn that the Blackest Night is here. Clark Kent makes his public debut as Superman, and his cousin Kara Zor-El arrives as Supergirl.

In Part 2, a black ring takes over Oliver and turns him into a Black Lantern. In Part 3, Barry is deputized as a Blue Lantern (hope) and Diana as a Star Sapphire (love), as in the comics. Together they free Oliver, and the White Light destroys Nekron, bringing on the Brightest Day.

5	Justice Society of America — S5 special	“Crisis on Infinite Earths, Part 5”	Tue., Jan. 14, 2020 — 9:00 PM

The story

Five years of setup. The Flash pilot (Tue., Oct. 7, 2014) ends with a newspaper from the future, the Central City Picture News of January 14, 2020, headlined “FLASH MISSING — VANISHES IN CRISIS.” From then on, the Monitor appears briefly across the franchise, as he did in DC's comics from 1982 to 1985. Green Lantern (2016) shows the first Anti-Monitor. The early episodes of Green Arrow S8 and most of The Flash S6 build to the event with red skies and the Monitor's warnings.

Part 1 (Wonder Woman). A wave of antimatter erases whole universes. The Monitor and his herald Harbinger gather heroes from across the multiverse, and Diana's Earth is next in line.

Part 2 (Batwoman). In Gotham, Batwoman fights beside Batman. Harbinger, possessed by the Anti-Monitor, kills the Monitor, and Pariah, who is cursed to witness the death of each world, joins the heroes.

Black Lightning tie-in. The Pierces' Earth begins to dissolve, and Jefferson leads Suicide Slum's people to safety as the heroes from the other Earths arrive.

Part 3 (The Flash). On the Monitor's satellite, Superman, Batman, Wonder Woman, the Flash, Green Lantern, Aquaman, and Martian Manhunter form the Justice League of America. Supergirl dies fighting the Anti-Monitor, as in Crisis #7.

Part 4 (Green Arrow). The Anti-Monitor builds an antimatter cannon to destroy the remaining Earths. With Oliver at his side to the last, Barry runs faster than he ever has, destroys the cannon, and disappears into the Speed Force. Only his costume is left behind, as in Crisis #8. The pilot's headline comes true.

Part 5 (JSA special). At the dawn of time, the heroes stop the Anti-Monitor from changing the universe's beginning, and the surviving Earths merge into one. The JSA and Kingdom Come Superman stand together in the final battle, and the Anti-Monitor is destroyed.

Key characters

- Every series lead and the seven Justice League founders
- The Crisis cast: the Monitor (Mar Novu), Harbinger (Lyla Michaels), Pariah (Kell Mossa), Psycho-Pirate, the Anti-Monitor

- Deaths: Kara Zor-El (Supergirl), Barry Allen (The Flash)

Consequences

- A single Earth. Diana's Earth (Wonder Woman), the Pierces' Earth (Black Lightning), and Earth-S (Shazam!) become one with the main DCTVU Earth. Histories are rewritten: Metropolis now has both Black Lightning and Superman, and Fawcett City and the Squadron of Justice were always part of this world's history.
- Supergirl is forgotten. As in the comics, the rewritten world has no memory of Kara. Only a few heroes remember her.
- Power Girl's Earth-2 origin is rewritten (JSA S5–S6).
- Wally West becomes the Flash (The Flash S6–S7).
- The Justice League of America now exists across the whole DCTVU.

5	The Flash — S8, Ep. 5	“Armageddon, Part 5”	Tue., Dec. 14, 2021 — 8:00 PM

The story

In 2031, a tyrant called Monarch rules the world, and he was once one of its heroes. Waverider (Matthew Ryder) travels back ten years to 2021 to find out which hero becomes Monarch and stop it from happening. When he touches a hero, he sees that hero's possible future. His first suspect is Barry, newly returned from the Speed Force, and then Wally.

Across five episodes, Waverider tests heroes from all over the DCTVU, many played by actors returning to their roles. Captain Atom is a suspect too. Hawk and Dove (Hank Hall and Dawn Granger) are pulled in, and when Dove dies in the climax, Hank's grief turns him into Monarch, as in the comics. Barry and Wally stop him, but Monarch escapes into the timestream.

Key characters

- Returning actors: Oliver Queen and Dinah Laurel Lance (Green Arrow ended in 2020), Diana (Wonder Woman ended in 2021), Jefferson Pierce (Black Lightning ended in 2021), Kate Kane (Batwoman), Jay Garrick and Courtney Whitmore (JSA), Billy Batson (Captain Marvel)

- Monarch's escape is a loose thread for the future.

Crossover 10 — THE FLASH MUSEUM

Fills the role of: It's My Party and I'll Die If I Want To (2023), a single-episode crossover
Comic source: The Flash Museum, a Central City landmark in the comics; the Reverse-Flash's origin, in which Eobard Thawne finds Barry's costume in a 25th-century time capsule (The Flash #139, 1963)

Part	Series & episode	Episode title	Air date / time (ET)
—	The Flash — S9, Ep. 14	“The Flash Museum”	Wed., Mar. 15, 2023 — 8:00 PM

The story

Central City opens the Flash Museum to honor its fastest man, and old friends and enemies turn out for the gala. Eobard Thawne, the Reverse-Flash, arrives from a point earlier in his own timeline, before Barry killed him, determined to burn down the museum that first made him obsessed with the Flash. Barry, Wally, and Bart race through the museum's exhibits to stop him.

The episode celebrates nine years of The Flash: rivals, allies, and old loves gather in the museum's halls one last time before the series finale.

Key characters

- Returning: Eobard Thawne (Reverse-Flash), Captain Cold, Golden Glider, Pied Piper (now reformed), Fiona Webb, Cecile Horton, Patty Spivot, Jay and Joan Garrick, Max Mercury
- Special guests: Oliver Queen (Green Arrow) and Dinah Laurel Lance (Black Canary)

Consequences

- It leads into the Flash War storyline and the final episodes of The Flash.

Changes Made to Vol. 06 (Character Rosters)

Vol. 06 has been reissued to match these crossovers:

- “Crisis on Earth-Three” is replaced by Crisis on Earth-S. The Earth-3 Crime Syndicate is replaced by King Kull, the Marvel Family, and the Squadron of Justice, and Captain Marvel's live-action debut moves to 2017.
- Blackest Night is now three parts (The Flash → Green Arrow → Wonder Woman). The JSA no longer takes part, and Supergirl is introduced here. Green Arrow's Black Lanterns are now Robert and Laura Queen, so Merlyn stays alive for Season 8.
- The 2015 crossover is now Justice Be Done (Mordru and Sandman's death). Vandal Savage remains a recurring JSA villain.
- Crisis order: Wonder Woman → Batwoman → Black Lightning tie-in → The Flash → Green Arrow → JSA. The JLA is founded and Supergirl dies in Part 3; Barry dies in Part 4.
- “JLA/JSA: Virtue and Vice” is removed, and Armageddon 2031 now opens The Flash S8.
- The Flash Museum episode is added to The Flash S9.
