Franchise Bible — Volume 10: The Cast & The Donohue-Bullock Family

FORMAT • TONE • CONTINUITY • CANON • TEAMS & FOUNDING ROSTERS

An alternate-history story told through Hollywood trades, headlines, social media, the internet, and screenplay-format scenes.

Story present: 2010.
Six live-action series + two animated series. One multiverse.

Internal development document. Fictional actors and the individual series to be created in later volumes.

How to Read This Volume

All ages are calculated from exact birthdays. Age on Jan. 1, 2010 is the age at the start of our story; 2010 birthday is the age each person turns during 2010. Black don't crack: each profile also says how old the person looks, which is almost always younger. That's what lets these actors play younger characters convincingly well into their careers.

MARC-ANTHONY BULLOCK

Born	Sunday, January 5, 1992, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles
Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Tue., Jan. 5, 2010. Looks: about 15. At 22 he could still pass for 17.
Family	Second child and oldest son of Natasha and Robert Bullock. Grandson of Victor and Joan Donohue. Sisters: Elxa (older) and Grace (younger).
Occupation	Actor, singer, producer, and comedian
Fame (2010)	A-list. The most famous young star on the Donohue Channel and Nickelodeon in a generation.
Current challenge	Making the jump to adult roles (not a drought: see Vol. 12). Hollywood still sees him as “the funny genius kid.”
DCTVU role	Barry Allen / The Flash (series premieres Oct. 7, 2014, when he is 22)

Who he is. Marc-Anthony is the sweetest, kindest, most loving, compassionate, innocent, and pure-hearted person anyone in Hollywood has met, and the same person is a wildly unfiltered comedian. Off camera he tells stories so outrageous that grown publicists cry laughing, then go quietly hide the tapes. He's naturally outgoing and magnetic. Cameras love him and he loves them back. His looks are natural and unmistakable, with a famous grin and an easy charisma no acting coach can teach.

The mind. His IQ is reported to be 250. He finished high school at 13 and has taken UCLA courses in mathematics and physics between shoots since 2008. Directors joke that he learns everyone's lines and then improves them.

Bending the rules to help people. When a rule is unjust, unfair, or just ridiculous, Marc-Anthony finds a creative way around it. At 14, when a terminally ill fan missed her Make-A-Wish visit because Donohueland had closed for the night, he talked security into “a maintenance test” and gave her the whole park to herself. At 16, he anonymously paid off every student's school lunch debt across three LAUSD districts after a school threw away a child's hot meal. His mother found out from the newspapers.

The dream. More than any award, he wants a big, gigantic family. Kids are non-negotiable. He believes in generational wealth: building something that protects his children's children. Kids adore him. At every Donohue Children's Hospital visit, he's the one sitting on the floor playing until the nurses make him leave.

Where he stands in 2010. In January his mother, who is also his manager, is pushing him toward a big Donohue blockbuster. He wants grown-up drama and has the reviews to back it up: The Long Way Home has earned him a Golden Globe nomination for Best Actor in a Drama at 17, with the ceremony on Sunday, Jan. 17, 2010. But the scripts still arriving are teen comedies, and every success gets dismissed by someone as “the Donohue grandson.”

He is godfather to Lyric Baker (born Apr. 20, 2024).

AMOND BAKER

Born	Monday, February 10, 1992, Inglewood, California (the same birthday as Robert Bullock, Feb. 10)
Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Wed., Feb. 10, 2010. Looks: about 16.
Family	Son of Calvin Baker, a high-school basketball coach, and Denise Baker, an ER nurse. Middle-class Inglewood.
Occupation	Actor and singer
Fame (2010)	B. Teenagers know him; adults mostly know him as “Marc-Anthony's best friend.”
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) A dry spell. No bookings since his Donohue Channel series ended in August 2009.
DCTVU role	Oliver Queen / Green Arrow (series premieres Oct. 2012, when he is 20)

The brotherhood. Amond and Marc-Anthony met at age 5, at a cereal-commercial audition in 1997. Neither got the job; they spent the whole wait wrestling over a box of crayons, and they've been brothers ever since. The Donohue–Bullock family treats Amond as one of its own, and Natasha has a key made for him. As Marc-Anthony's right-hand man, Amond is the steady one: the friend who says “no” out loud when Marc's ideas get too creative, then helps carry them out anyway.

The dry spell. At 17 he's too old for kids' TV but still looks too young for the adult roles he wants. Casting directors call him “solid but safe.” He wants a part with danger in it, and in 2012 he gets one when he's cast as the hooded vigilante of Star City. He's proud and won't accept Marc's money; he would rather wait tables, and for most of 2010 he does.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Hang Time High (Nickelodeon, 2002–2006)
- Hoop Dreamers (Donohue Channel Original Movie, 2006)
- The Ridge (Donohue Channel, 2006–2009)
- Amond (album, 2007): modest sales

LOCKED FUTURE: He and Harmony Divine become a couple in 2023, their daughter Lyric is born on Apr. 20, 2024, and they marry in 2025. Marc-Anthony is Lyric's godfather.

TYRESE AVERY

Born	Wednesday, July 24, 1991, Atlanta, Georgia
Age	18 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 19 on Sat., July 24, 2010. Looks: about 17.
Occupation	Global pop superstar and actor
Fame (2010)	A+. The most famous of the cast in 2010: sold-out world tours, multi-platinum albums, and 9 million Twitter followers.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Being taken seriously as an actor. To critics he's "a pop star who acts."
DCTVU role	Carter Hall / Hawkman (debuts in the "Justice Be Done" crossover, Dec. 1, 2015, when he is 24)

Discovered in 2006 through YouTube videos of himself singing in his grandmother's Atlanta church, Tyrese signed with Hollywood Records at 15. His debut album, Avery (2008), made him a worldwide sensation, and his follow-up, Gravity (2009), topped the charts in 31 countries. He's a perfectionist who doesn't trust easily and keeps his private life completely private.

His first film, the dance drama Midnight Shift (2009), was a box-office hit, but critics panned his performance. He wants to prove he's an actor, not a brand, and his manager keeps sending him scripts about pop stars. Playing a reincarnated Egyptian warrior-prince will change that.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Avery (2008) and Gravity (2009): both Grammy-nominated
- Midnight Shift (2009, film debut)

ESTHER SMILLEY

Born	Sunday, September 20, 1992, Los Angeles
Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Mon., Sept. 20, 2010. Looks: about 15.
Family	Youngest of three children and heir to the Smilley Family, a Hollywood acting dynasty (see the Smilley Family page).
Occupation	Actress and singer
Fame (2010)	A-list. America's sweetheart, often called a modern-day Shirley Temple.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Moving to mature work. Her parents keep her in projects that protect her “good girl” image.
DCTVU role	Diana / Wonder Woman (series premieres on CBS, fall 2015, when she is 23)

Esther has been on screen since she was four. She's known for her natural beauty, distinctive features, and effortless elegance, and she can sing, dance, and break your heart in a single take. Critics compare her to Shirley Temple. She has been friends with Marc-Anthony since 2001, when they met as kids at the Donohue Channel Games; they co-starred in Summer Song in 2008. They're friends, nothing more, for now.

The good-girl problem. Her parents, Charles and Vivian Smilley, guard the family name and turn down anything with an edge on her behalf. Privately, Esther keeps a binder of the roles she's been refused. Her chance comes in 2015, when a role that's wholesome and mighty gets past even her parents: Wonder Woman, the part her mentor Joan Donohue made famous in 1975.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Sunny Side Up (Donohue Pictures, 1997, film debut at 4)
- Sugar & Spice (Donohue Channel, 2002–2006)
- Hope Street (Donohue Pictures, 2005): Golden Globe nomination at 13
- Esther's Christmas Wish (ABC, 2007): a holiday classic
- Summer Song (2008), with Marc-Anthony
- Sweet Sixteen (album, 2008)

> LOCKED FUTURE: She and Marc-Anthony become a couple in 2021, their twins Emma and Victoria are born on May 10, 2022, and they marry in 2023.

ARIANNA CUMMINGS

Born	Sunday, October 25, 1992, Chicago, Illinois (Bronzeville)
Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Mon., Oct. 25, 2010. Looks: about 16.
Occupation	Actress (stage and screen)
Fame (2010)	C. Critics love her; the public doesn't know her yet.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Still waiting for her breakthrough. She's offered only “best friend” and “troubled teen” parts.
DCTVU role	Kendra Saunders / Hawkgirl (debuts in “Justice Be Done,” Dec. 1, 2015, when she is 23)

Arianna is a Chicago theater kid, trained in youth productions on the city's storefront stages. At 16 she starred in the indie drama Bronzeville, which earned a Special Jury mention at Sundance in January 2009. Reviewers call her “the best young actress nobody's heard of.” She's fiercely serious about her craft, reads everything, and has turned down two sitcoms. Kendra Saunders, a woman living a past life she can't escape, is the role she's been preparing for.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Bronzeville (Sundance 2009)
- ER (NBC, 2008, guest role)
- Youth theater productions in Chicago (2003–2009)

Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Sat., June 19, 2010. Looks: about 16.
Occupation	Actress and dancer
Fame (2010)	C+. Famous on Broadway and in the dance world, and just starting out in Hollywood.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Typecasting: she's offered only dance movies.
DCTVU role	Iris West (The Flash premieres Oct. 7, 2014, when she is 22)

Harmony was dancing before she could walk properly. She trained at Houston's ballet schools and in Alvin Ailey's New York summer intensives. At 10 she was cast as Young Nala in Donohue Theatrical's The Lion King on Broadway (2002–2004), and she has won several national youth dance titles. In 2009 she moved to Los Angeles to act full-time, but every script she's sent is about a girl who dances her way out of trouble. She's sunny, disciplined, and fiercely funny, and she'll be the one in the cast who bridges every group.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- The Lion King (Broadway, Young Nala, 2002–2004)
- National youth dance championships (2004–2008)
- Dance-film supporting roles (2009)

LOCKED FUTURE: She and Amond Baker become a couple in 2023, their daughter Lyric is born on Apr. 20, 2024, and they marry in 2025.

Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Mon., Jan. 4, 2010. Looks: about 16.
Occupation	Actor and musician (guitar, piano, vocals)
Fame (2010)	B. A teen heartthrob.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Typecast as the nice boyfriend. He's never been cast as anything else.
DCTVU role	Eobard Thawne / Reverse-Flash (2014, at 22), cast against type

The son of two Motown session musicians, Tyler starred as the lead singer in Nickelodeon's Garage Band (2006–2009), which gave him a pop career and a poster on every teenager's wall. He's warm and self-deprecating. He and Marc-Anthony share a running joke as “birthday twins, one day apart.” Privately he's desperate to play someone dangerous. When he's cast as the Flash's archenemy, the trades call it a gamble, and his performance makes him a fan favorite.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Garage Band (Nickelodeon, 2006–2009)
- Garage Band soundtrack albums (2007, 2008)

DAVID TIPTON

Born	Wednesday, November 14, 1990, Houston, Texas
Age	19 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 20 on Sun., Nov. 14, 2010. Looks: about 18. He's 6'4" with a stillness that fills a room.
Occupation	Actor
Fame (2010)	D. Unknown.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) A dry spell and typecasting. He's only offered "thug #2" or "the linebacker."
DCTVU role	Teth-Adam / Black Adam (JSA, fall 2016, at 25; also voices him on Shazam!)

David was a high-school All-State linebacker headed for a college scholarship until a knee injury ended it in his senior season in 2008. A drama teacher told him he had a face "that could hold a close-up for a full minute," and he moved to Los Angeles with $600. In 2010 he works the front desk at a Burbank gym and reads Shakespeare on his breaks. He's soft-spoken and principled, and he'll make the most feared anti-hero in the DCTVU a man the audience can't stop rooting for.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Friday Night Lights (NBC, 2009, guest role)
- Commercials and student films

TAYIA BOYD

Born	Monday, February 3, 1992, Oakland, California
Age	17 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 18 on Wed., Feb. 3, 2010. Looks: about 15.
Occupation	Actress
Fame (2010)	B. Well known from kids' TV.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Typecast as the sassy best friend. She wants to lead her own show.
DCTVU role	Dinah Laurel Lance / Black Canary (Green Arrow, Oct. 2012, at 20)

Tayia co-starred with Marc-Anthony on both Totally Maxed Out (Nickelodeon) and Prodigy (Donohue Channel). Critics called their timing “the best chemistry in kids' TV,” and they work together brilliantly. Marc-Anthony insists she should be the lead, and in 2010 he quietly hands her name to every casting director he meets. She's quick, loyal, and a powerhouse singer. As Black Canary, with a sonic cry and a fighter's training, she finally gets top billing.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Totally Maxed Out (Nickelodeon, 2004–2007)
- Prodigy (Donohue Channel, 2007–2009)

ELIJAH BLACKMAN

Born	Wednesday, March 23, 1994, Brooklyn, New York
Age	15 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 16 on Tue., Mar. 23, 2010. Looks: about 12. At 23 he still passes for 15.
Occupation	Actor
Fame (2010)	B-. Known from family films.
Current challenge	(Drought: see Vol. 12.) Outgrowing child roles: can the kid from Space Cadets grow up on screen?
DCTVU role	Billy Batson / Captain Marvel (live-action debut in “Crisis on Earth-S,” Nov. 27, 2017, at 23)

Elijah became famous at 12 in Donohue's Space Cadets family comedies (2006, 2008). Directors love his sincerity, but his baby face is starting to work against him. Playing Billy Batson, a boy who becomes the World's Mightiest Mortal by saying one word, is the role that lets his youthfulness and his growing range work together.

Selected credits (through 2009)

- Space Cadets (Donohue Pictures, 2006)
- Space Cadets 2: Moon Camp (Donohue Pictures, 2008)

THE DONOHUE–BULLOCK FAMILY

VICTOR DONOHUE — Chairman

Born	Thursday, May 30, 1946, Los Angeles. The only son of founder Neil Donohue and Hazel Pruitt Donohue.
Age	63 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 64 on Sun., May 30, 2010. Looks: a fit 45.
Roles	Chairman of Donohue Entertainment (2006–present); CEO (1976–2006). Actor, singer, producer, director.
Wealth	About $150 billion in Donohue stock, plus private holdings
Famous for	The original screen Superman in four Warner Bros. films (1978, 1980, 1983, 1987), filling the role Christopher Reeve played in our world

Victor was raised on the Burbank lot. He was nominated for an Academy Award at 21, had a string of hit records in the late 1960s, and took over the company at 30. Burbank calls him "The Mountain": you go around him, never through. He's respected, powerful, ruthless, and dangerous to anyone who crosses the family, and he's a grandfather who has never missed a birthday. He sees himself in Marc-Anthony, and that worries him.

JOAN DONOHUE (née MERCER)

Born	Saturday, April 17, 1948, Oakland, California
Age	61 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 62 on Sat., Apr. 17, 2010. Looks: about 45.
Roles	Actress, singer, director, filmmaker
Wealth	About $100 billion in Donohue stock
Famous for	The original TV Wonder Woman (ABC 1975–77, CBS 1977–79), filling the role Lynda Carter played in our world

Joan started as a teenage singer in Oakland's clubs, became a television icon as Wonder Woman, and in the 1980s became one of the first Black women to direct a major-studio feature. They call her "The Velvet Hammer": gracious in public, ruthless at the negotiating table. She is Esther Smilley's mentor, and in 2015 she's the one who tells Esther, "The lasso's yours now, baby."

NATASHA BULLOCK (née DONOHUE) — CEO

Born	Wednesday, June 2, 1971, Los Angeles. The only daughter of Victor and Joan.
Age	38 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 39 on Wed., June 2, 2010. Looks: about 30.
Roles	President & CEO of Donohue Entertainment (2006–present). Actress and singer. Manager of all three of her children.
Wealth	About $110 billion in Donohue stock
Famous for	Dr. Miranda Bailey on ABC's *Grey's Anatomy (2005–present), filling the role Chandra Wilson played in our world

Natasha was a child star in the 1970s and an R&B hitmaker from 1988 to 1998. She runs a $10 trillion company by day and plays a surgeon on network TV, and she has never once been late to set. She's respected, powerful, ruthless, and dangerous; one rival studio head said he'd "rather negotiate with a hurricane." She loves her children without limit, and she manages their careers like the CEO she is. That's the central conflict of 2010: Marc-Anthony wants to be an artist, and Natasha has a strategy for him.

ROBERT BULLOCK

Born	Monday, February 10, 1969, Chicago, Illinois
Age	40 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 41 on Wed., Feb. 10, 2010. Looks: about 32.
Roles	Director and filmmaker
Wealth	About $2 billion in Donohue stock, plus his own film earnings
Awards	DGA Award, Emmy, and Golden Globe winner; Academy Award nominee

Robert graduated from USC's film school in 1990. He met Natasha in 1989 while directing her music video, and their daughter Elxa was born in August 1990; they married in 1991. He's known for intimate dramas about Black life, including Southside (1995) and Kingdom (2001). He's the calm center of a family of storms and Marc-Anthony's creative mentor, and he quietly takes his son's side in the fight for serious roles.

ELXA BULLOCK

Born	Wednesday, August 29, 1990, Los Angeles. The Bullocks' first child and oldest daughter.
Age	19 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 20 on Sun., Aug. 29, 2010. Looks: about 16.
Roles	Actress and television personality
Fame (2010)	A-
Challenge	Credibility (the public sees her as a host), plus a total drought: see Vol. 12.
DCTVU role	Kate Kane / Batwoman (series premieres Oct. 2019, when she is 29)

Elxa hosted The Donohue Channel Games (2006–2008) and ABC Family's teen talk show The Hang with Elxa (2008–2009, ended December 2009). She earned an Independent Spirit nomination for the indie drama Little Wing (2008), but she still has to fight the "just a host" label and the nepotism whispers. She's sharp, protective, and the family's diplomat. Batwoman, a soldier forced out of the military who rebuilds herself on her own terms, becomes her defining role.

GRACE BULLOCK

Born	Tuesday, April 12, 1994, Los Angeles. The Bullocks' youngest child.
Age	15 on Jan. 1, 2010; turns 16 on Mon., Apr. 12, 2010. Looks: about 13.

Challenge	A tween-star image, plus a total drought: see Vol. 12.
DCTVU role	Donna Troy / Wonder Girl (Wonder Woman S3, fall 2017, at 23)

Grace starred in the Donohue Channel's Gracie Goes Global (2007–2009, ended December 2009). Her album Grace Notes (2009) debuted at No. 2, and she won the Critics' Choice award for best young performer for the drama Sparrow (2009). She is Marc-Anthony's ride-or-die. She would hide a body for him, and the whole family believes her. Playing Donna Troy, Wonder Woman's sister, alongside Esther lets her on-screen family match her real one.
